

TeacherAcademy

by SchoolEducationGateway

Expectations of teachers to play a key role in addressing modern societies key questions linked to technological, social and economic changes are on the rise. To help teachers access the training and support they require, the Teacher Academy on the School Education Gateway, the European Commission's website for the school education community, offers professional development opportunities for teachers, teacher trainers and non-teaching staff involved in school education (from pre-primary to upper secondary).

The Teacher Academy offers a central course catalogue with information on in-service on-site and online courses. The online courses are entirely free and are developed by the School Education Gateway. Teachers can also find a selection of teaching materials developed by eTwinning teachers, other EU-funded projects and EU institutions.
